Events

- Record field of V8 Formula 5000 's
- Fabulous historic racing cars including three Lago Talbots
- Capacity fields of Group A, Group C and Group N Touring cars
- Thrilling full grid of Group S production sports cars
- Big fields of 'big banger' Porsche, Lola, GT40 Ford, McLaren and Matich sports cars
- Spectacular parade of historic racing Porsches and other exotic sporting cars

Each year, the world's finest and fastest historic racing, sports and touring cars gather for one weekend at Phillip Island to pay homage to the home of the inaugural Australian Grand Prix staged in 1928. Around 450 participants including around 20 overseas entries will converge on the exciting 4.45 kilometre ocean-front circuit for 33 events to create the largest and most exciting historic motor racing event staged in the Southern Hemisphere.

A tribute to Porsche

Seven priceless Formula 1, Targa Florio and Le Mans racing cars from Porsche's Stuttgart Museum will be amongst more than 100 special Porsches competing or parading over the weekend.
