

2020 PHILLIP ISLAND CLASSIC

MARCH 6 – 8

PRE-PURCHASED CAMPGROUND & TICKET BOOKING FORM

Recognised as one of the world's largest historic motor racing events on the international calendar by the number of entries and races held over the three days, the Phillip Island Classic is expected to once again draw more than 500 entries with vehicles from around the world.

Spectators can also look forward to camping at the circuit for the 2020 Phillip Island Classic. Located in the Visitor Centre Gardens, campers will have the opportunity to relax in good company a short stroll away from the Paddock, with the campground also adjacent to the popular licenced Champions Cafe.

Camping will be provided for motorhomes, campervans, caravans and tents, space is limited however so it is essential to pre-book early to avoid disappointment.

A limited number of powered sites are available. Portable generators are permitted, however, in consideration of your fellow campers they are not to be used between 10.00pm and 7.00am. Showers and toilets are also available.

A circuit map showing the campground location is attached.

Please note: In order to gain access to the campground you must have an event credential and/or event ticket and a camping ticket.

To purchase your camping tickets please complete and return the attached Booking Form by 12 noon Wednesday 4th March 2020 to:
